

THE STORY OF PROPHET HUD (Alaihi salaam)

The people of 'Ad lived many years in an area between Yemen and Oman, in a valley named Mughith.

They were arrogant and boastful because of their physically well built and craftsmanship

They worshipped Allah and other gods, including idols

Allah sent prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam), who handled the task with great resoluteness and tolerance to the people of 'Ad.
(Surah Hud 11:50)

Prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam) did not demand anything from them except a reward from Allah.
(Surah Hud 11:51)

Prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam) advised the people of 'Ad to repent, for Allah will make his sustenance easy for him, grant him ease in his affairs and guard him to those who repent to him.
(Surah Hud 11:52)

People of 'Ad did not believe him and said that Prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam) was afflicted with insanity.
(Surah Hud 11:53-54)

Prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam) bear witness that he was innocent of all the rivals and idols that the people of 'Ad worshipped other than Allah. He put his trust in Allah.
(Surah Hud 11:54-56)

Their disbelief harms their own selves.
(Surah Hud 11:57)

Allah destroyed them with the barren wind because they denied the prophet. They got their punishment in this world and in the Hereafter. Allah saved Prophet Hud (Alaihi salaam) and his followers.
(Surah Hud 11:58-60)

Tafsir Ibn Kathir Surah Hud
11:50-60
